Module 2
Religious Understanding	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That God calls us to love others • About ways in which we can participate in God's call for us to love others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All children will learn that God calls us to love others. • Most children will appreciate that we all have something we can offer in terms of loving others. • Some children will demonstrate a deeper understanding and passion for participating in God's call for us to love others.
Personal Relationships	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That pressure comes in different forms, and what some of those different forms are • That there are strategies that they can adopt to resist pressure • What consent and bodily autonomy means • About different scenarios in which it is right to say 'no' • How thoughts and feelings impact actions, and develop strategies that will positively impact their actions and apply this in their relationships • About prejudice, bullying and discrimination: what they mean and how to challenge them. • About protected characteristics from the Equality Act 2010 such as race, age and disability. • That everyone is made in the image of God, loved unconditionally by Him, has equal dignity and is deserving of equal respect. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All children will learn that pressure comes in different forms, and what some of those different forms are; will gain a basic understanding of consent and bodily autonomy; and will understand that how we think can affect our feelings and in turn our actions, and that we call this 'self-talk'; learn that bullying is always wrong. • Most children will be able to describe some strategies they can adopt to resist pressure; will be able to discern situations in which it would be appropriate and right to say 'no'; and will understand how positive self-talk can impact our feelings, actions and relationships for the better; understand what prejudice and discrimination are, and how they relate to the protected characteristics. • Some children will demonstrate a more nuanced and applied understanding of different pressure scenarios, including the feelings of the pressured child in the context of thoughts, feelings and actions; will demonstrate a deeper understanding and will to uphold consent as related to respecting the dignity of our precious God-given bodies; and will demonstrate a deeper understanding of both positive and negative self-talk, and how it helps us to balance our expectations so that we feel confident to try new things at the same time as assessing the consequences realistically; have a deeper empathy for victims of bullying and discrimination, and eagerly approach the challenge to build others up through their words and actions.

Life Online	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To recognise that their increasing independence brings increased responsibility to keep themselves and others safe ● How to use technology safely ● That just as what we eat can make us healthy or make us ill, so what we watch, hear, say or do can be good or bad for us and others ● How to report and get help if they encounter inappropriate materials or messages ● What the term cyberbullying means and examples of it ● What cyberbullying feels like for the victim ● How to get help if they experience cyberbullying 	Coming Soon
Keeping Safe	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To judge well what kind of physical contact is acceptable or unacceptable and how to respond ● That abuse violates the rights of children ● That there are different people we can trust for help, especially those closest to us who care for us, including parents, teachers and priests ● About the effect that a range of substances including drugs, tobacco and alcohol can have on the body. ● How to make good choices about substances that would have an impact on their health. ● That our bodies are created by God, so we should take care of them and be careful about what we consume. ● Consider how, as they get older, they may come under pressure when it comes to drugs, alcohol and tobacco ● Learn that they are entitled to say “no” for all sorts of reasons, but not least in order to protect their God-given bodies ● The recovery position can be used when a person is unconscious but breathing ● DR ABC is a primary survey to find out how to treat life-threatening conditions in order of importance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All children will know that if they feel unsafe, they can and should seek out a trusted adult for help and support; will learn about the effect that a range of substances including drugs, tobacco and alcohol can have on the body; will understand that as they get older they may come under pressure when it comes to drugs, alcohol and tobacco; and will understand that, amongst other things, the job of a First Aider is to keep themselves and the casualty safe. ● Most children will understand that some physical contact is appropriate and some is inappropriate, and be able to describe some examples of these; will understand the impact that these substances can have on people’s lifestyles, and how we can all make better choices to benefit our health and well-being; will be able to come up with ‘for’ and ‘against’ arguments for giving into pressure, and practise making good choices; and will, with prompts, have a degree of confidence in performing the DR ABC primary survey, as well putting someone in the recovery position. ● Some children will demonstrate greater empathy throughout the activities and a deeper understanding that because God made us to love and be loved, we should respect one another’s bodily privacy and autonomy; will understand that our bodies are created by God, and we can honour Him by taking care of them and being careful about what we consume; demonstrate understanding that they are entitled to say “no” for all sorts of reasons, but not least in order to protect their God-given bodies; and will confidently demonstrate the DR ABC primary survey and understand the importance of following this in order to prioritise potentially life- threatening conditions.

Module 3
Religious Understanding	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are the three persons of the Holy Trinity. • That the Holy Spirit works through us to bring God’s love and goodness to others • The principles of Catholic Social Teaching • That God formed them out of love, to know and share His love with others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All children will understand that God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are the three persons of the Holy Trinity; and will learn what the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching are. • Most children will understand that the Holy Spirit works through us to share God’s love and goodness with others; and will know that God loves them and wants them to love others, and be able to come up with examples of how Catholic Social Teaching principles can be practised. • Some children will demonstrate a more nuanced and personal understanding of what it means for the Holy Spirit to live inside us and how this helps us to share God’s love in the world; and will demonstrate a greater sense of conviction and motivation to incorporate Catholic Social Teaching principles in their daily lives and will be able to identify injustices in the world where change could be affected.
Living in the Wider World	Children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How to apply the principles of Catholic Social Teaching to current issues • About ways in which they can spread God’s love in their community 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All children will have a basic understanding of how to apply the principles of Catholic Social Teaching to current issues. • Most children will understand how Catholic Social Teaching principles can help them to judge not only whether something is wrong, but why it is wrong. • Some children will show great aptitude when categorising articles, and demonstrate compassion and motivation to challenge issues of injustice.
